Iditarod Alaska, 2nd Edit.

Synopsis

The Iditarod Race is more than just a race across Alaska. It typifies a lifestyle common to the north land a century ago. Men and women, who enter the Iditarod, don't just survive Alaska's brutal winter conditions-they're tough enough to thrive. The life of a sled dog musher, often under primitive conditions, and the bond that develops between him and his dogs, is all part of the story told in book, Iditarod Alaska.

Customer Reviews

Reading Burt's recollections of his experiences training and running the Iditarod, his encounters with the men and women who've made the Iditarod famous (and not so famous), and stories of Alaska has been a captivating and enjoyable read. I highly recommend it for all those with a passion for adventure!
