Bigfoot 3: The West Virginia Toehold

Synopsis

In this book, the author, George Dudding discusses further history of Bigfoot and continues his previous two books by digging up more interesting tales, some believable and others more bizarre, from sources who continue to come forward to tell stories of their encounters with the elusive monster. Just how long will it be before both experienced and amateur Bigfoot hunters toy with this unpredictable beast and find themselves on the wrong end of the stick? Danny Harper, Bigfoot enthusiast, returns to write the foreword for this book. Read and decide for yourself as to whether Bigfoot is real, folklore or hoax.

Customer Reviews

This is another entry in the Bigfoot in West Virginia series. There are more great encounter stories from locations throughout the state. Please note, the author intends this series for general readers who aren't familiar with Bigfoot lore. There is a forward, some brief background and then the encounter tales are presented. They are straight forward tales of various encounters. For those who are more knowledgeable of Bigfoot lore, they are still entertaining. A good entry, but I personally think the last in the series, #2 was best. Still enjoyable.

The collection of story's will keep your attention, Mr Dudding has done another great job. Infomative, cleanly written, it was a good read on a cold, dark night :)

Good reading , I enjoyed this book.
