Customer Reviews

I feel like I have been hooked some cheap dime store novels but realize I put down a best selling mystery to read the 3rd book of Trawler Trash and found it was better written, more enjoyable, and hard to put down. You got to have some pirate spirit in ya to really like these books (don't we all) but I am now eagerly awaiting the next installment. Thanks Ed, keep up the great work.

The author has an easy style that fits the story . His description of the places and life style are accurate and you experience it with him. This is the third book in the series and they are all good but I wish this one was a little longer

I have really enjoyed this series of books. I have a hard time putting the books you wright down. I especially enjoy how Ed is able to relate his real life experiences into his stories. Thank you for the wonderful tales I hope there are many more.

These books seem to get shorter and shorter, what gives???? So glad Breeze finished his legal problems, not so glad to hear about his coke runs. It is a real shame that drug running can get such good payoffs for illegal work and the 9-5 stiffs work long hours and are above board and get lousy money. Thanks, Amarillo Turtle

This book about Meade Breeze is one of the best tropical reads that I have found in years. I have also read the previous titles leading up to "Free Breeze" and found them all very entertaining books. I would recommend this series to anyone who likes to read about tropical places and what happens when you live on a boat.

As good as the first two books of this series were, Author Robinson has even bettered himself. Breeze is a well developed character, a real boat bum which anyone can relate to - good with women - great at solving proplems. Enough suspense making it difficult to put the book down. I can highly recommend reading this series. I am looking forward to many future books in this series.

Love the character Breeze, he's a bit Travis McGhee and yet he's an opportunist. Well written, good plot and a great story for all who love to read thriller mysteries about. Boats, Florida and lovely women. Highly recommended !!!

I just finished Ed Robinson latest book with the Florida trawler trash and wheeler dealer. Breeze! Another great effort and very realistic. Florida isn't just the condo and Hotels. We who know it, know there are many sides to that coin, and Breeze know a few! also! Good read!
